

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

The Elba City School Board failed a portion of the Elba community last Thursday night. They were presented with a situation where a young man was kicked from the football team when he missed a game because of a conflict with a 4-H trip in which his group (from Elba) won national honors. His family along with a number of other Elba citizens (right or wrong) are upset with the action and continuing inaction. After hearing complaints from several citizens the board spent almost an hour in executive session, and then told the group "This isn't our problem... we are ready for the next item of business." The visitors didn't let it stop there and continued to question the superintendent and board. One visitor who went to listen and not talk said later, "If I had planned to speak, I wouldn't have after seeing the way those of you who did speak out were chopped up by the superintendent or chairman." On our part, we tried to point out to the board that their absolute lack of any comment would be a slap in the face to a lot of people whose support the school needed, especially during these trying times for education. The response we got was Chairman G. A. Lindsey saying "There is a lot you may not know about this matter."

We didn't challenge that statement then and we resist the temptation to challenge it now because that wasn't the point. We don't know the price of eggs in China, but we PERCEIVE that many people in that community are hungry. If no one bothers to correct our thinking, we will continue to think the same thing. By saying nothing at all the board, innocent or by design, sent out the message we are committed to perpetuating the school system as is, a system education critics say was designed to train them fast. A case could be made that the school system is not a team but a board members closing ranks to protect someone. But surely they aren't trying to protect a football coach whose every action has shown he needs less "protection" than anyone in the chain of events. No, we don't ever want a school board running an athletic program... the times we have seen it tried... disaster prevailed. We do agree with Chairman Lindsey's statement that the matter should have been handled BEFORE (and long before) getting to the board. However since it did get there, the board shouldn't shrug its shoulders. That isn't exactly the purpose of school boards.

When it became obvious the school board wasn't going to get into the coaching business, we were crying for the board to pass a resolution commending the young man for his successes (success outside the classroom does not challenge the security of any school staffer, in fact it is a credit to the state, city and the school).

They could have said "We hereby commend Jamie Brockton for his high achievement in the recent national 4-H competitions and encourage him to continue to broaden his horizons. It is with personal and professional pride that we acknowledge his association with this school system. We strongly support students who are expanding their knowledge beyond the 3 R's. We deeply regret he found conflict with this school board. It is the hope of this school board that in the future these conflicts will not cause him nor others with the initiative to get involved to curtail their interest in such activities."

If they were scared of that, or could see the broader picture, they could have (and probably should have) expanded the resolution to commend all four Elba youths on the 4-H team for their successes in the event and encourage them to continue, etc. After all the other three had conflicts also, and this isn't unusual with students who are "involved"... and it's gonna happen again. It is alright for the school to take credit for their success... remember they all learned to read in the public school system.

WE GET LETTERS

OPEN LETTER TO MIKE BRIGHT

Mr. Mike Bright
 Elba High School
 Elba, Alabama

Dear Mr. Bright:

It was a fortunate experience of mine October 26, to attend part of the band festival at our high school, the Lanett High School.

I am writing in regards to the great performance of your high school band. As one who has attended many band festivals and activities, I must admit it was quite different. I have attended many festivals representing the newspaper where I work. I have also attended many festivals representing the City of Lanett as a councilman since 1983, had two granddaughters attend and play in the band at Valley High School in Valley, AL and have attended just for the sake of attending often and then one of the granddaughters would play in the Auburn University Band. So as a newspaper employee, a Baptist minister and a few hands. Yet the performance of the Elba High School Band was to say the least, quite different, but GREAT! I admire you and the band for its performance.

Mrs. Ora (Sewell) Gray died Monday afternoon in Birmingham. Graveside services were held Wednesday at 11:00 A.M. in Valhalla Cemetery, Birmingham.

Family members said memorial donations may be made to the First United Methodist Church in Elba.

Please excuse this lengthy note. I asked our high school superintendent for your name as I wanted to drop this note from me personally. Incidentally, I do serve on the council here as Chairman of Police and School Committee. So you see where some of my interests are. Please accept this note as one of appreciation for your hand's performance and please relay the same to the band should you have the opportunity.

United Way Campaign within 5% of goal

The Coffee County United Way Campaign has now raised 95% of its $120,000 goal. This amount already represents 130% of last year's collection. In reporting on the campaign this year, Co-Chairman Tim Afford stated, "We've been extremely grateful to our campaign to date, but we still have a short way to go. Everyone needs to redouble their efforts to help us reach our goal and go beyond it. We have some businesses and individuals scheduled for solicitation in the next two weeks that should put us over the top." We had an ambitious goal which was 46% higher than last year's collections, but I feel confident we'll make it... thanks to the dedicated work of many, many people.

"I can't wait for us to reach our goal and have a big victory celebration."

Federal Land Bank lowers interest rate

The Federal Land Bank Association (FLBA) of South Alabama will lower its variable interest rate to 9.50 percent effective November 1. This interest rate reduction is the most recent in a series of rate reductions over the last two years, which have brought the association's variable rate down more than a full percentage point to the new 9.50 percent rate.

"We are pleased to be able to pass on to our members the benefits of a favorable interest rate climate," said William Galloway, Branch Manager. "The savings in financing costs should help our area farmers and ranchers afford to purchase land, housing or farm improvements that they might have postponed otherwise."

The new 9.50 percent variable rate is available for agricultural, rural housing, and farm-related business loans.

The Enterprise/Branch branch offices of the FLBA of South Alabama provide long-term agricultural financing in Barbour, Dale, Coffee, Covington, Crenshaw, Geneva, Henry, Houston and Pike counties.

The 1991-92 officers are President Brenda Johnson, Vice-President Lisa Jackson, Treasurer Rebecca Jackson, and Secretary Peggy Storey.

When asked about the organization, Mrs. Brenda Johnson, president, said, "The next PTO meeting will be November 21 at 7 p.m. If you have a child enrolled at Zion Chapel Elementary or High School, you are invited and urged to attend this meeting. Recently a special program celebrated its tenth anniversary. It was the Foster Grandparenting Program and two ladies from Elba shared in this celebration. Annie L. Williams, a member of the original members, and Cora McBride share large amounts of their time working with students at Elba High School. Annie says she loves working with children and it gives her something to look forward to when she wakes up in the morning. Children are a great joy in Annie's life and in turn, she is a big influence in the lives of the children with whom she works.

The Foster Grandparenting Program is a great program for children who don't have much to look up to and for children who just simply love grandparents.

Recently a special program celebrated its tenth anniversary. It was the Foster Grandparenting Program and two ladies from Elba shared in this celebration. Annie L. Williams, a member of the original members, and Cora McBride share large amounts of their time working with students at Elba High School. Annie says she loves working with children and it gives her something to look forward to when she wakes up in the morning. Children are a great joy in Annie's life and in turn, she is a big influence in the lives of the children with whom she works.

The Foster Grandparenting Program is a great program for children who don't have much to look up to and for children who just simply love grandparents.

The Nineteenth Annual Rebel Beauty Pageant will be held Saturday night, November 23, 1991, in the Zion Chapel High School Gymnasium beginning at 7 p.m.

A Junior Beauty will be picked from grades seven through nine. Contestants in this division should wear dresses in a length appropriate for street wear. Formal should not be worn and contestants that wear formals in this division will be disqualified. Amanda Flowers will crown this year's winner.

A Campus Beauty will be selected from grades ten through twelve. Contestants in this division should wear evening dresses. Whether the gown is long or tea length is up to the individual contestant. Nicki Pilcher will crown the winner.

I've heard that over half of all auto accidents happen close to home. Well, I guess it wasn't really an auto accident, but last week I didn't even make it out of the yard. Last Tuesday morning Melanie and I were getting ready to go to daycare, and like always, she wanted to climb in the car by herself. She got almost all the way up when she lost her balance and began to fall backward. I jumped to catch her, and did manage to keep her from falling. However, when I jumped I hit the door of the car with the bridge of my nose and split my nose wide open. I held a wet cloth over the cut and got Melanie to daycare on time, then returned home to doctor my wound. It really wasn't as bad as I first thought, but it has been rough getting kidded about letting my wife beat me up!

IT WAS A FITTING END TO A HARD LUCK SEASON FOR ELBA

If it weren't for bad luck the 1991 Elba Tigers wouldn't have had any luck at all! The Elba Tigers ended their football season just like they had started it, as they lost at home Friday night to close out the season with a 5-5 record and missed out on the playoffs for the first time in nine years. The Tigers lost four of their five home games at what used to be Elba's dreaded "Foggy Bottom" and Friday night's loss to Sloccomb was just a mirror image of the entire season, with the Tigers playing hard, but not coming up with the big play at the right time.

In the loss to Sloccomb, Elba gave up one touchdown on a 60-yard punt return on which the Red Top return man seemed to signal for a fair catch, but then caught the ball and took off for the goal line, while the other scores came on fourth down plays. One score came on a reverse pass on fourth down and nine, while the other came on a shuttle-pass on fourth down and eight. The Tigers played hard on defense all game and made some big plays to stop Sloccomb's offense. However, they also gave up three big plays that resulted in all three Red Top scores.

On Sloccomb's winning drive the Tigers appeared to recover a fumble, only to have the play blown dead, and had what looked like a sure interception on a fake punt, only to see the ball deflect off the Elba defender into the arms of the Sloccomb receiver. Just more of what will be remembered as some of the Tigers bad luck during the season of 1991!

The Elba offense had problems moving the ball at times against the aggressive Red Top defense, but was sparked by the running of Perry Stinson and kickoff returns of Marcus Tyson and almost pulled out the win. Stinson made a big run that set up one Tiger score, while Tyson had two long kickoff returns that sparked both scoring drives. Over on defense, the Tigers gave up yardage in chunks for most of the night, but managed to come up with several big plays to keep the Red Tops out of the endzone, except for the three big scoring plays. The defense was short-handed due to an injury to senior linebacker Hunter Hudson and junior linebacker Teddy Burks, who was hurt early in the game, yet played hard for every play and gave it all he had.

Sloccomb dressed out 47 players, compared to 27 for Elba, and the Red Tops had a fine team and are fine champions of Area 2, however, the Tigers battled until the end and went down fighting just like the champions they are. One bad season doesn't make or break a winning program, and the Elba Tigers have one of the winningest programs in the state in any class. The 5-5 record isn't one that will be looked upon with joy, but it will be one that fans and players will remember because of the shortage of players and the players' refusal to throw in the towel, despite numerous injuries and setbacks!

Elba Tiger basketball season to begin Tuesday night

The Elba Tigers will open their basketball season on the road Tuesday night, Nov. 19, when they travel to Rehoboth to battle the Rehoboth Rebels, in an early Area 2 contest. The Tigers posted 20 wins last year and advanced to the final round of the sub-state tournament, losing to eventual state champion Francis Marion, but lost three starters off last year's squad and new coach Danny Foster may have his work cut out for him if his first Tiger squad is to repeat the success of a year ago.

"Elba had a lot of success last year and has some quality players coming back," said Coach Foster, "but lost its leading scorer in Bennie Daniels, leading rebounder in Jerry Jones and top defensive player in Ronald McKinnon, not to mention senior David Rowe and backup point guard Tim Whitfield. The success of last year's team was great for the fans and the program, but that year is gone and we must start all over and work hard to be the best we can be."

"We have been working in physical education class for a couple of weeks," added Foster, "but with no goals it's hard to get anything done except run and work with weights. The players have worked hard, however, and we've practiced a few nights at Westside and twice over at Enterprise State. Practices have looked good at times and terrible at times, so, I don't really know just how much we've accomplished. We'll find out more this week when we get the football players at practice and hopefully we'll be ready to at least resemble a team when we go to Rehoboth."

Junior Tigers to open season tonight against Luverne Jr.

The Elba Junior High Tigers will tipoff the 1991-92 basketball season tonight (Thursday) when they host Luverne at the Westside Baptist Church Activities Center. The 8th grade game will begin at 5:00, with the ninth grade game to follow at 6:00.

"Our team last year was entirely ninth graders," stated Coach Frank Phillips, "and they had a good year and won the county championship. This year those players are up on the B team and this bunch can't live on the last year's success. Everybody on the schedule will be out to play Elba back for last year's games and unless this bunch works hard and gets ready, they could find the going a little rough."

"The eighth graders finished second in the county last year and had a good squad," added Phillips, "and that should help them as ninth graders. We've got the nucleus of a good team and seem to have good height and quickness. We will play an up tempo game, just like we did a year ago, and try to make our opponents play our style. If we can run and play up tempo we should have a good chance at having another good season."

"Our schedule is just as hard as ever," said Phillips, "and includes Dauphin, Enterprise and Geneva, all of which are bigger than us, as well as Luverne, our area rival in all sports, and county rivals New Brockton and Kinston. New Brockton's

FAN SUPPORT, OR LACK OF IT, WAS EMBARRASSING

If I could have found a couple of minutes to write down your names, I would thank each and every one of the fans who came out Friday night to support the Tigers in their season finale. It wouldn't take long! Elba's crowd at Friday night's game was embarrassing and for the first time in many, many years I believe that our opponents had more fans at the game than we did. I've seen more Elba fans at junior high games than showed up Friday night. I know that it was cold, but the players had worked hard all season and certainly deserved more support than was shown at Friday night's game. Sloccomb's fans late to the game early and cheered loudly when their team needed support late in the game. Elba's fans cheered, but there is only so much noise that a handful of people can make, and when the Tiger players needed them the most, the encouragement simply wasn't there.

I'm not blaming the loss on the large number of fans that chose to stay home and not support our fine, hard working young men. I just can't believe the size of the crowd that was at the game and hope that I'll never see that many empty seats again!

NEW BROCKTON SALVAGES COUNTY BRAGGING RIGHTS

The high school football season came to an end for the county teams last week and although no county school boasted a winning record, the final week of the season did bring about some excitement. Here's a quick look at week #10...

The New Brockton Gamecocks had to settle for a 5-5 record, but did manage to salvage bragging rights among the county schools Friday night when they edged Zion Chapel to claim the mythical county championship. The Gamecocks weren't expected to win any state championships this season, but were expected to be as bad as another paper across the county kept reporting, and the 5-5 record has to be somewhat disappointing. The Gamecocks had a very young team this year, so, watch out in '92, the Gamecocks may come fighting back!

The Zion Chapel Rebels will carry a 2-7 record into the playoffs after last week's loss to New Brockton, and while a 2-7 record is nothing to brag about, this year's Rebel team may be the toughest bunch ever to take the field for the red and gray. Zion Chapel started the year with a handful of players and got down just enough to field a team after a series of devastating injuries, but never gave up and fought until the final horn in every single game all year long. Forget the record...this bunch of Rebels is special and they'll be in the rich history of 2C football as one that carried the Rebel pride on the field despite the odds!

The Kinston Bulldogs closed out the season on a winning note as they pounded the Brantley Bulldogs to finish the year with a 3-7 slate. The Bulldogs expected great things in '91, but got off to a slow start and never really played as well as they hoped, until late in the season. The Bulldogs could have simply quit late in the year and thrown in the towel, but they saved their best for last and really impressed everyone with the desire and dedication. Maybe the Dogs are really here to stay!

FAVORITES ARE EASY TO SPOT IN STATE GRID PLAYOFFS

The high school football playoffs will begin this week across the state and while the defending champs are back in all six classes, the defending champs aren't necessarily the favorites, at least as far as I'm concerned. Here are some teams to watch as the playoffs get started.

CLASS 1A - McKenzie posted 9 impressive wins during the regular season and has to be considered one of the top teams in 1A, while Trinity (10-0), Parrish (9-1) and Courtland (5-2) are also teams to keep an eye on.

CLASS 2A - Reeltown was the top team in this class all season long and whipped 4A and 3A teams with ease. If the Rebels don't claim the crown watch out for Straughn (9-1), Cordova (9-0), Addition (10-0), Hatten (8-2) or Hazlewood (8-1).

CLASS 3A - Red Bay posted an unbeaten 10-0 record and was never really challenged, making it the team to beat, while other teams to keep an eye on include Chelsea (10-0), Plainview (10-0) and Piedmont (9-1). Sorry, but Dallas County played the easiest schedule in the state and it will catch up with them!

CLASS 4A - Deshler rolled to its second straight undefeated record and has to be the favorite to repeat, while other teams with a solid shot include Pike County (8-2), T.R. Miller (9-0) and Alexandria (10-0).

CLASS 5A - Robert E. Lee looked a little vulnerable late in the season, but the 8-1 Generals have to be the favorites, along with Vigor (9-1), Hewitt-Trussville (9-1) and Jess Lanier (7-3).

BASKETBALL SEASON IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER

The Elba Tigers didn't make the playoffs for the first time in nine years and while that means local football fans will have to find something else to do, they won't have to wait long, as the Elba Tigers will hit the basketball court next week and will keep playing almost non-stop until March.

New Elba coach Danny Foster has impressive credentials, but will need to use all his skills this season if he expects to lead the Tigers to another big season. The Tigers lost three starters off last year's squad, including the leading scorer, rebounder and top defensive player, and will have to fill a lot of holes in a hurry if the Tigers are to even come close to equaling the success of last year's bunch. Dee Miller and Alex Magwood return and both are quality players that could play for any team around, but from there Coach Foster will have to get returning reserves Nick Whitfield, Terry Goosby and Chad Dawkins ready to play, as well as newcomer Aaron Phillips. The Tigers appear to have a little better than average talent; however, it may take a while for the Tigers to hit their peak and even longer for the team to catch on to Coach Foster's aggressive style of play.

I'm not about to go out on a limb and predict another 20-win season for the Tigers, but a winning record may well be in the cards!

POLISH PROGNOSTICATOR TIP-TOES INTO PREP PLAYOFFS

Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator hit on 28 of 34 picks in the final week of the regular season to finish with a 28-25 mark, which comes out to over 81 percent. He was proud of the yearly total but a little leery about his picks.

ZION CHAPEL AT ARITON

The Rebels may have one of the worst records in the playoffs at 2-7, but have as much heart and desire as any team in any class and won't go down without a fight. It will be a fight in the early rounds, but then look for a Purple Cat knockout!

ARITON 44 ZION CHAPEL 20

BRANTLEY AT REELTOWN

You call this a reward for making the playoffs? The Bulldogs have one of the most dangerous passing attacks in the 2A ranks, but will be on the road to battle the unbeaten Reeltown Rebels, which have one of the state's best teams. If the passes find their targets this one could be respectable. If not, it may be a long ride home!

REELTOWN 42 BRANTLEY 0

FAIRHOPE AT ENTERPRISE

The Wildcats haven't been so wild in recent weeks and nothing is a sure thing for the rebuilding Cats from across the county. Enterprise doesn't have a chance at winning a state title, but should make it to the second round!

Coaches are needed for youth basketball leagues in Elba

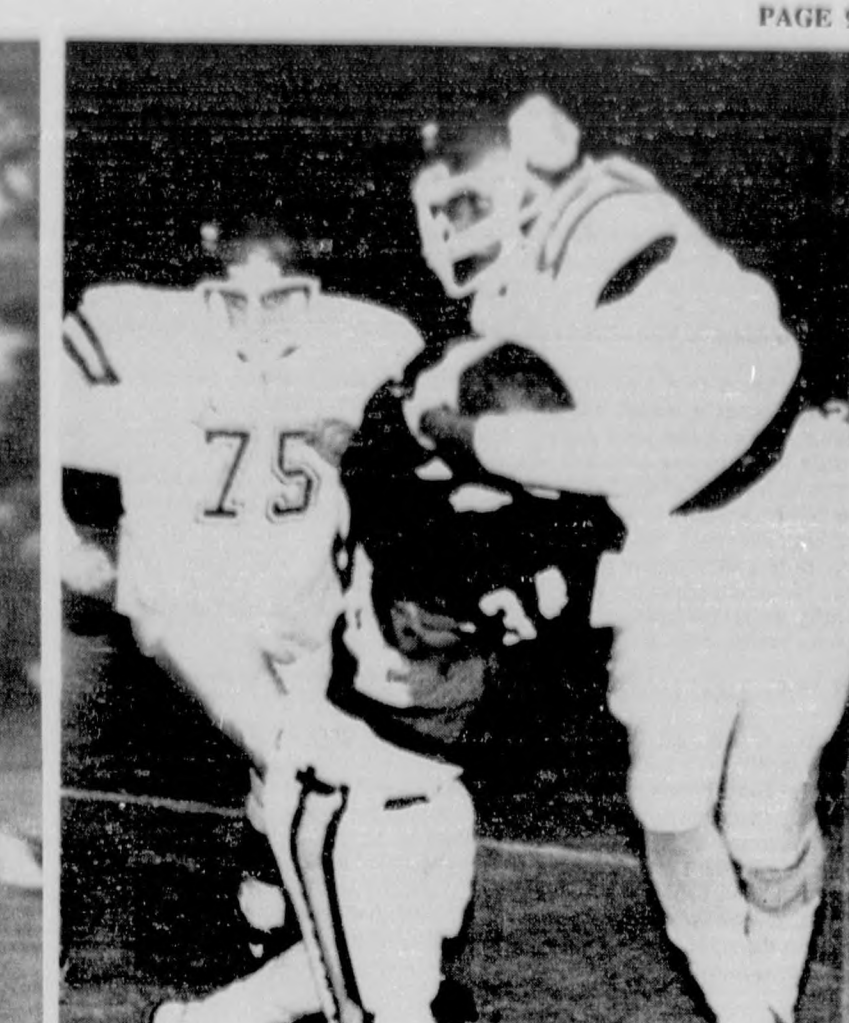

Coaches are still needed for the upcoming "Youth Basketball League," to be sponsored by the Elba Department of Parks and Recreation. The league will have two divisions - one for boys ages 10 and Under and a second for boys ages 12 and Under. Anyone wishing to coach should contact Recreation Director Ricky Mularz at 897-6833 or 897-2333.

Marching Tiger Drum Major Art Williams gave his final salute to the Elba fans Friday night as the band performed in front of the home crowd for the last time.

Tiger fullback Perry Stinson (31) fights for tough yardage in the middle of the Sloccomb defense in Friday night's 21-17 loss.

Tiger linebacker Richard Kyles (34) applies a crunching tackle to a Red Top back during Friday night's Area 2 battle. Kyles, a sophomore, had a big night in the hardfought contest.

Elba Tigers fall to Sloccomb 21-17

The Elba Tigers saw a disappointing season come to an even more disappointing end Friday night when they were defeated by the Sloccomb Red Tops 21-17, at Miller Memorial Stadium.

The loss left the Tigers with a 5-5 slate, 2-2 in Area 2 action, while Sloccomb closed out the regular season with a 9-1 record, 4-0 in Area competition.

Neither team could mount a drive on its initial possession of the night; however, the Red Tops still managed to get on the scoreboard early in the game as Sloccomb's Vincent Huff took an Elba punt at the Red Top 40-yardline, dodged a trio of Elba defenders and raced 60 yards down the sidelines for Red Top touchdown. The extra-point try was blocked by Marcus Tyson, but with 6:49 left in the opening stanza the visiting Red Tops had the lead at 6-0.

The two Area rivals swapped punts and fumbles for much of the remainder of the half, but Sloccomb did get its offense in gear midway through the second quarter and marched 80 yards in 8 plays to extend its lead to 14-0.

William Huff gained 40 yards on 5 carries to spark the Red Top scoring drive, while the touchdown came on fourth down and 9 at the Elba 31-yardline, when Mark Berry took a handoff on a reverse and tugged a touchdown pass to a wide-open Vincent Huff. Derek Price hit Berry with a pass for the two-point conversion and with 3:20 left in the half the Red Tops held a surprising 14-0 lead.

The Tigers were down, but not the ensuing kickoff at the 21-yardline and raced 67 yards to tie the game at 14-14 at the Sloccomb 12-yardline.

Teddy Burks and Tyson got Elba down to the three, and from there Brian Reedy needed 3 tries to bull Huf for a 3-yard loss to stop the threat.

Sloccomb got the ball back on its 20-yardline following an Elba punt and put together an 80-yard scoring drive that took 19 plays and saw the Red Top defense come up on 4 straight fourth down gambles.

The Tigers appeared to have a big turnover early in the drive when Scotty Dawson hit William Huff for a big loss; however, it was ruled that the play was dead, and from there the Red Tops headed downhill for what turned out to be the winning score.

The Red Tops converted on a fourth down and one at the Sloccomb 41; a fourth down and 8 at the Sloccomb 45; a fourth down and 1 at the Elba 32 and then on a fourth down and 8 at the Elba 26, which was the biggest play of the night for the Red Tops as on the fourth down play Derek Price tossed a shuffle pass to William Huff, who dashed 26 yards to the endzone. Tommy Apin added the extra-point and with 6:45 left in the game the Red Tops had regained the lead at 21-15.

A 46-yard punt by Joel Kirkland backed Sloccomb up at its 1-yardline with 4:05 left on the clock and the Tiger defense refused to let the Red Tops out of the hole, but missed out on a possible game-winning turnover, when the Red Tops recovered a fumble at the 3-yardline with 1:47 still left on the clock.

Sloccomb took an intentional safety with 1:39 left to keep from having to punt out of its own endzone, allowing the Tigers to pull within 21-17.

Elba got the ball back at midfield with 1:32 left on the clock and had one final chance to pull out the win; however, two running plays and an incomplete pass left the Tigers facing fourth and 12, and on the Tigers' final play of the season Kirkland was sacked for a 7-yard loss to hand the Tigers the 21-17 defeat.

Marcus Tyson gained 103 yards on 22 carries to lead Elba, while William Huff led Sloccomb with 162 yards on 26 carries.

Brian Reedy made 10 tackles and 2 assists to lead the Tiger defense, while other defensive standouts included Anthony Brashers (7 tackles and 1 interception), Tommy Young (7 tackles and 1 assist) and Richard Kyles (6 tackles and 1 assist).

New Brockton trips Zion Chapel 19-16

Zion Chapel's Dymoris Smith (1) eyes a Gamecock defender after breaking into the open. The Rebels will advance to the 1A playoffs this week when they oppose Arton.

By Greg Brunson, Sports writer

The Zion Chapel Rebels traveled to New Brockton Friday to battle the Gamecocks for the "County Championship," and although the cold weather kept the attendance down, the fans that did show up were treated to a red-hot battle as the Gamecocks claimed a hard-fought 19-16 victory over the hard-hitting Rebels.

Chris Green set up the game's first scoring opportunity with a 32-yard pass to the Rebel 28-yard line on the second play of the game. The Zion Chapel defense sufficed; however, and held the Gamecocks on fourth down at the 10-yard line.

The Rebels bounced right back with a drive of their own, but the drive proved to be costly, as after back-to-back completions by Jeremy Law moved the ball to the New Brockton 30-yard line, Law was sacked and had to help from the field, and never returned to help the Rebels in the cross-county battle.

The potential scoring drive was stopped when Tracey Woods was stopped just short of first down yardage at the New Brockton 22 on a fourth down play.

New Brockton's Adrian Cason (44) heads outside behind teammate Chris Brooks (50) as he finds room to run against the Zion Chapel defense. The Gamecocks ran up and down the field, but had to hang on to edge the Rebels 19-16.

New Brockton took over at its 22 and promptly marched 78 yards in 10 plays to get on the scoreboard. The drive was highlighted by the running of Adrian Cason, who carried the ball 6 times for 67 yards, while it was Brent Griffin who got the touchdown on a 2-yard quarter back sneak. A two-point try failed, but with 11:27 left in the second half, the Gamecocks owned a 6-0 lead.

Zion Chapel didn't trail for long; however, as Tracey Woods took the snap from his spot in the backfield on the Rebels first play from scrimmage following the Gamecock score and raced 66 yards down the right sideline for a touchdown. Mark Hodges ran in for the two-point conversion and with 10:58 left in the half the Rebels had jumped on top 6-6.

The Gamecocks were held to three plays and a punt into a stiff wind on their next possession, with Zion Chapel getting the ball back at its own 45-yard line.

Behind the running of Tracey Woods, the Rebels marched right back down the field, deep into New Brockton territory, only to see the drive end when on third down at the NB 23, Woods rolled to pass and had his loss intercepted by Chris Green at the New Brockton 4-yard line.

New Brockton raced right back down the field on a 15 play drive that ended in mass confusion at the Zion Chapel 10-yard line.

The referees called a late hit on the Rebels on the final play of the half and walked off 10-yards, which was half the distance to the goal. However, the refs didn't let New Brockton run another play and ruled the flag was thrown on a dead ball penalty and stated the penalty would be enforced at the beginning of the second half, despite the fact the penalty had already been walked off.

The Rebels were penalized 15-yards at the beginning of the second half, as promised, bringing an end to the confusing set of circumstances. (I still don't understand what happened!)

A 40-yard carry by Tracey Woods on the first snap of the second half got the Rebels out to midfield and out of trouble, but the drive stalled and a 36-yard Rebel punt nailed the Gamecocks' back on their own 9-yard line.

Another 15 play drive by the Gamecocks took almost 9-minutes off the clock in the third quarter and was climaxed when Adrian Cason scored on a 4 yard run. The extra-point try sailed wide, but the Gamecocks had regained the lead at 12-6, with 1:14 remaining in the third quarter.

A short punt by the Rebels set up the Gamecocks at the 45-yard line and gave New Brockton another scoring opportunity.

Adrian Cason took control and rushed for 49 yards on 6 carries during the 8 play, 55 yard march, and got the score when he high-stepped in from a yard out. Brent Griffin nailed the extra-point and with 8:29 left in the game the Gamecocks had stretched their lead to 19-6.

Tracey Woods got the Rebels right back in the game as he carried the ball 5 times for 57 yards on the Rebels' next possession and scored on a 9-yard gallop. Woods also ran in with the two-point try and with 5:24 still left on the clock Zion Chapel had cut the Gamecock lead to 19-16.

The Rebels held the Gamecocks on 3 plays and got the ball back on a punt, giving Zion Chapel one more chance to claim the win. However, four plays later Tracey Woods was hit on a jolting tackle and fumbled at midfield. Andy Blackmon recovered the ball for New Brockton and the Gamecocks held on for the exciting win.

The game was highlighted by three spectacular individual efforts. Tracey Woods led all ball carriers with 265 yards on 23 carries for Zion Chapel, while New Brockton was paced by Adrian Cason with 201 yards on 31 totes and Chris Green added 136 yards on 20 carries.

Zion Chapel & Brantley face tough openers

The Alabama High School Athletic Association will begin its "Football Playoffs" this week and both Zion Chapel and Brantley will enter the playoffs facing two of the top teams in the state in their respective classes.

The Zion Chapel Rebels (2-7) will open the 1A playoffs on the road against the highly-ranked Arton Purple Cats (6-1) while the Brantley Bulldogs (4-5) will hit the road in the 2A playoffs to challenge the unbeaten Reelfoot Rebels (10-0).

Zion Chapel was devastated by injuries during what was a disappointing season, but the Rebels never gave up and finished the season with a narrow 19-16 loss to cross-country rival New Brockton.

The Rebels are led by Tracey Woods, one of the state's most dangerous runners with over 1,400 yards during the regular season, and can score from anywhere on the field at anytime. The ZC defense hasn't been as successful, however, giving up over 27 points a game, including 56 to Arton in the season opener.

The Purple Cats lost only to 2A power Samson (28-7) in rolling up a 9-1 slate, and during the season posted wins over Zion Chapel 56-30, Goshen 21-12, Straughn 28-21, Coffee Springs 41-6, Wicksburg 42-16, Louisiana 34-12 and Long 34-14.

The Cats are led by quarterback Josh Herring and are considered one of the top 1A clubs in the state, making this playoff opener a real battle for the underdog Rebels.

BRANTLEY was the surprise team in the area during the season as the Bulldogs rolled to a 4-5 record. The Bulldogs are a unique squad, in that they live and die by the pass, and are considered a dangerous opponent, in spite of their losses.

While Zion Chapel faces a tough playoff opponent, the Bulldogs may be facing the best 2A team in the state in the undefeated Reelfoot Rebels.

Reelfoot played one of the state's toughest schedules, which included games with 4A opponents and one 5A opponent, but never slowed down in piling up 10 straight wins. The Rebels defeated (4A) Dadeville 14-10, (4A) Elmore County 13-6, (3A) Vincent 33-7, Talladega Central 29-8, (4A) Handley 14-7, (4A) Talladega 28-0, Beulah 33-6, Loo-chapoka 34-0, Natusuga 40-12 and (4A) Jemison 34-3.

The Rebels are looking for a state title, and despite Brantley's record, won't have anything to lose.

WHERE HOME IMPROVEMENTS BEGIN

By Phillip Miles, Sports writer

"Old Man Winter" made his presence known Friday night with his chilly temperatures and teeth-chattering winds, but it turned out that the elements were the biggest challenge for the Kinston Bulldogs as they completely dominated the playoff-bound Brantley Bulldogs and coasted to an impressive 32-18 win.

Brantley failed to move on its opening series, and then gave Kinston an early present, as on fourth down the snap on the punt attempt sailed over the punter's head, setting Kinston up at the Brantley 29-yard line.

Kinston was cold, but ready to turn up the heat, as on its third play from scrimmage Marcus Cook took a handoff on a draw play and ram-bled 24 yards up the middle for a touchdown. Steve Wise bulled over for the two-point conversion and with 9:43 left in the opening stanza Kinston was on its way with an 8-0 lead!

Kinston continued its domination on Brantley's second series as quarterback sacks by Ben Coale and Michael Wise knocked the Dogs back, and Kinston kept up the heat on Brantley's next possession as they forced the visitors to punt once again.

Kinston's offense wasn't as effective as the defense, as it stalled at the Brantley 16-yard line and then turned the ball over on an interception late in the half.

Brantley's offense came to life following the interception and drove 50 yards to get on the scoreboard with only 1:06 left in the half.

The score came on a six-yard pass, but the two-point try failed, and at the half Kinston with in with an 8-6 advantage.

Kinston failed to mount a drive on its first series of the second half, but backed the visitors up at the Brantley 5-yard line with a booming punt by Danny Dornell, and one play later got the ball back when Kevin Grogge pounced on a Brantley fumble at the 4-yard line.

Marcus Cook got the score on the next play and Billy Phillips added the two-point conversion, giving the Kinston lead to 16-6 with 10:10 left in the third quarter.

Kinston's defense came up with another turnover on Brantley's next possession on a pass interception by Wesley Reynolds at the Brantley 46-yard line, and the Bulldogs cashed in the turnover as seven plays later, Billy Phillips blasted over from two yards out. Steve Wise bulled over for the two-point try and with 5:28 still left in the third quarter Kinston's lead had ballooned to 24-6!

Brantley saw a drive stopped in Kinston territory on its next series, but then stopped Kinston at the Brantley 37-yard line and this time drove down the field for a touchdown.

The touchdown came on a six-yard pass with 5:23 left in the game, and although the two-point try failed, Brantley was still alive, trailing 24-12.

Brantley got the ball back and went to the airways in an attempt to pull out the win; however, Kinston's Danny Dornell picked off a Bulldog aerial and returned it 40-yards for yet another Kinston score.

Marcus Cook added the two-point conversion and Kinston had the win in the bag, leading 32-12 late in the game.

Brantley failed to pull out the win, but the Bulldogs went down fighting as they staged a last second drive and scored on the final play of the game to make the final Kinston 32 Brantley 18.

Marcus Cook gained 130 yards on 23 carries to lead Kinston, while Billy Phillips added 73 yards on 10 tries.

Round & About With Eria

Where can I go from Thy Spirit? Or where can I flee from Thy presence?

If I ascend to heaven, Thou art there; If I make my bed in Sheol, be there; If I take the wings of the dawn, If I dwell in the remotest part of the sea.

Even there Thy hand will lead me, and Thy right hand will lay hold of me.

If I say, "Surely the darkness will overwhelm me, and the light around me will be night," Even the darkness is not dark to Thee, and the night is as bright as the day. Darkness and light are alike to Thee.

Psalm 139:7-12

Thinking of you, praying for you: Mrs. Gladys Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Young (Betty Sue), Mrs. Pearl Tills, Mr. Tilton Lindsey, Mrs. Thelma Clark, Mr. Rayfield Carpenter, Mr. Hillier Hooks, Mr. Leo Henderson.

The Zion Chapel 6th grade girls have started out by electing officers. They are: Ashley Nelson, president; Beth Levent, vice president; Shasta Simmons, secretary; Michele Sawyer, reporter; Amanda Ellis, devotion leader; and Amy Eddins and LaShanda Ploumoy, song leaders. All 4-Hers picked a subject for their year and received their record books. It looks as if the 6th grade girls are off to a great start.

Fourth Annual Coffee County Registered All Breeds Sale To Be Held

Each year quality purebred cattle producers from around the Wiregrass area consign bulls to the Coffee County All Breeds Cattle Sale. This year the top bulls in the Wiregrass area. Usually, we sell around 60 to 70 lots with 75 percent of these being registered bulls. This year we have a few more than 75 percent being registered bulls. The remaining lots will be cow-calf pairs, bred heifers, open heifers, all purebred. I have looked at almost all of these cattle, and they are heavily muscled and structurally sound and performance data is available on most of these cattle.

The breeds represented will be Angus, Brangus, Charolais, Limousin, Polled Hereford, Simmental, and Beef Master.

If you are in the bull market or looking for a good registered female, there is no question in my mind that you can find what you are looking for here. These are range ready, powerful bulls ready to go to work for you on your farm. One of the best parts is the prices at this sale have always been very reasonable. They don't give them away, but you certainly can't pay an out-of-sight price for a good quality bull.

If you want more information or a catalog, give me a call at 894-5596 or long distance 1-800-422-0180.

4-H Woodworking Workshop Planned For November 18th

Richard Petcher
Associate County Agent

Getting educational information to families has been Extension's mission for more than 75 years. In the early days, county agents went from one end of the county to the other, carrying information from house to house by horse and buggy.

Throughout the years as the communication technology has become more advanced, Extension has changed by adopting new communication delivery methods.

To stay abreast and on the cutting edge of new technology, Extension is now using satellite teleconferencing, along with other media channels (radio, newspapers, magazines) to get the latest information out to the people.

According to reports, Alabamians

A 4-H Woodworking Workshop will be held November 18, 6:30-8:30 p.m., at the Farm Center in New Brockton. The cost is $5.00. This workshop will be an excellent opportunity to learn good woodworking skills or improve the skills you already have. We will make a wall plaque. The plaque makes an excellent gift or is very nice to hang on your wall at home.

Come join the fun. Please register by November 15 so we will know how many to plan for.

Allow Plenty Of Time To Complete Holiday Projects

Angela G. Hughes, County Agent
PREPARING HOLIDAY GIFTS

It is never too early to begin making holiday gifts. By making gifts in advance, you are saving money, and secondly, you are giving a personalized gift of sentimental value.

Many simple crafts can be given as gifts when making one for yourself. Also, consider sewing an extra item when making one for yourself. Friends and family who compliment your work may love the gift of free sewing.

Remember, as the holidays approach, allow yourself PLENTY of time to complete the projects, and enjoy the season by enjoying your family.

STORING PECANS
Pecans, like most nuts, are rich in fat. Pecans contain over 70 percent fat. They are a good source of calcium, phosphorus, iron and vitamin A and B. Pecans also contain a small amount of carbohydrates. One cup of pecans contains about 740 calories.

Pecans can be stored for year round use. They will be good raw or tossed in desserts, salads, candies, and baked goods. To keep them at their best, protect pecans from air, moisture and high temperatures. Pecans can be stored unshelled in a cool place for about six months; shelled in the refrigerator for about 9 months. Pecans should be stored at 32 degrees Fahrenheit for up to two years.

It's important to remember to store pecans before they become rancid. Pecans become rancid after several months of storage unless they are properly frozen. Nuts in the shell keep their high quality longer than shelled nuts. Whole nuts become rancid less quickly than nuts in pieces and unroasted nuts keep better than roasted ones. Store unshelled pecans in a cool place (32 degrees to 38 degrees Fahrenheit). They will keep fresh for about six months.

Containers that can be used to store pecans include plastic containers, reusable tin cans, glass freezer jars and airtight plastic bags. Moisture vapor resistant plastic bags, for freezer storage, package the nuts in suitable containers, remove all air possible and close tightly. Label each package with the date and add whether they are unbroken halves or broken pieces. Store in the freezer at 0 degrees Fahrenheit. Use within 18 to 24 months. Allow nuts to thaw before use.

For refrigerator storage, place in shelled pecans in suitable containers and store in the refrigerator not longer than nine months.

County residents voice opposition to regional landfill

by Marvin McLwain

Coffee County residents from the Whitewater Community voiced their opposition to the building of a regional landfill northeast of Elba on Alabama Highway 125.

More than 20 residents appeared before the Coffee County Commission's hearing on the matter last Wednesday morning (Nov. 13) in the Enterprise Courthouse.

Prior to opening the hearing, Commission Chairman Bill Egerton said, "This is a public hearing to hear only comments concerning Coffee County extending its service area to include neighboring counties."

"We do not oppose a local landfill, but we do oppose a regional landfill,"

"This is not a public hearing on the location of the new landfill or whether or not to have a new landfill," continued Egerton. "There will be other public hearings to discuss those matters."

The commission's plan is to make application to the Alabama Department of Environmental Management (ADEM) requesting that Coffee County be allowed to let nine additional counties use the proposed new landfill to dispose of their solid waste.

The commission's next order of business was on deciding where to hang a four part painting of both county courthouses, the Raw's Hotel and the Enterprise Railroad Depot.

The painting was purchased by Probate Judge Marvin Brunson at the last Piney Woods Art Festival.

It was decided to hand the painting in the new commission chambers located in the Farm Center.

Other matters addressed by the commission were as follows:

Assistant County Engineer Randy Tindell informed the commission that $46,467.00 in federal aid funds had been received to fund a culvert bridge over Paces Creek on Co. Rd. 38.

Tindell stated that the contract to widen and resurface Co. Rd. 79 should be let on Dec. 13.

Commissioners were informed work on Co. Rd. 42 (Packing House near Elba) was proceeding on schedule.

Hear a request from Judge Brunson for additional vault space in the Elba Courthouse.

A motion by Commissioner Eugene Bradley to allow county employees to have the day after Thanksgiving as a holiday was approved by the commission.

The county engineer's office was asked to study the possibility of the county occupying the "Hugo De Vaughn Road" in the Shiloh Community for maintenance. There seem to be some question as to whether or not the road had been maintained by the county in the past. The road is approximately 300 yards long.

He suggested a portion of the money budgeted for the proposed landfill be used to fund the project. Dubose's motion on the matter died for lack of a second. Several of the other commissioners expressed concern that if they provided water to these residents, they would open a can of worms and they would have to provide water to all

The nine counties are: Barbour, Butler, Covington, Crenshaw, Dale, Geneva, Henry, Houston and Pike. Egerton said, "It is our intention, as a commission, to provide Coffee County with as many options as possible for disposing of solid waste in a manner provided by new federal regulations."

Continuing, he said, "The decision to accept solid waste from one or all of those counties mentioned would be based on economic reasons and that decision will be made at a later date."

Addressing the commission first was Annette W. Griswold. She stated that those present at the hearing as well as an additional 500 individuals who were unable to attend, had signed a petition expressing their opposition, were much concerned about the effects such a landfill (regional) would have on their county now and in years to come.

Mrs. Griswold said, "We realize that you (the commissioners) are our elected officials and that you are here to handle the affairs of the county. We appreciate your efforts."

She continued, "Most likely, you are looking at this from an economic view point. However, we are not concerned about the effects such a landfill (regional) would have on our county now and in years to come."

Griswold expressed concern about the monitoring of the rubbish and garbage that will be deposited in the landfill, the possible damage to wildlife, livestock, vegetation and human life in the area. She also asked, "What will a landfill of this size do to property values in this area?"

The ability of the safeguards such as liners, monitoring wells, and holding ponds to prevent the contamination of Whitewater Creek and Pea River was questioned by Mrs. Griswold and others present at the hearing.

In conclusion, Mrs. Griswold said, "We do not oppose a local landfill for the local people, but we do oppose a regional landfill. Let every county and state take care of its own garbage."

She continued, "We strongly urge you (the commission) to reconsider and not make this a regional landfill. We do not need nor do we want outside garbage."

Mrs. Griswold introduced Pamela O'Bryan who is a member of the International Affiliation of Reconciliation. According to O'Bryan, the group is the world's oldest religious pacifist organization and was founded in Great Britain 75 years ago.

O'Bryan's comments to the group and the commission dealt primarily with the dumping, mostly illegal, of toxic and hazardous waste.

Members of the commission stated that the proposed landfill would not be permitted to receive this type waste.

O'Bryan expressed concern that private landfill operators would gain control of the landfill in the future and the county would no longer be able to control what type of waste would be dumped at the site.

A resident who lives nearest the proposed landfill site, Dennis Smith, expressed his concern that during the rainy season, the water shed from the landfill would drain into Whitewater Creek and pollute the stream.

Danny Maddox, pastor of White-water Baptist Church, reminded the commissioners of their responsibility to the people of Coffee County.

"You do not represent ADEM or anybody else, you represent us," said Maddox. "I want to encourage you (the commissioners), don't consider letting another county dump one ounce of garbage in our backyard in Whitewater."

He continued, "I want you (the commission) to consider that instead of just the economics and how much it's going to cost Coffee County during your administration."

Harriet Foster, a grandmother from Donaldsonville, GA, told how her grandchild was suffering from birth defects supposedly as a result of her daughter bathing in contaminated water.

She said that she and her family had purchased what was thought to be farm land, but it turned out to be the site of a closed hazardous waste dump site. Foster claimed that she was uninformed by officials who were aware that the land was on a past landfill site.

Ben McKee, pastor of New Brockton's First Methodist Church and a resident in the vicinity of the proposed landfill site, expressed his concern that the county could afford to buy 481 acres of land for a proposed landfill, but could not provide rural water to thirty-four families living in that area.

He said, "I wish that our commissioners could do something constructive - that is to get water to the people - that is rather than destructive to the site."

From an economical standpoint, Egerton stated that according to reports, it takes approximately 160 tons of garbage per day at $30 per ton to operate a landfill on a break even basis. "We don't have 160 tons a day in Coffee County, so we were trying," said Egerton, "to keep our costs where we could live with it."

Dean Smith pleaded with the commission not to make their decision on having a regional landfill solely on the basis of economics.

"We may have to pay more today more than we want to, but it may be the best decision we ever made twenty years from now for our kids," Smith said.
